LET'S CELEBRATE OUR YOUNG BOOK LOVERS

I would like to congratulate Willow-Flame and Evie P on achieving their Blue Peter Reading Badge. Having taught both children, I can vouch for their love of books and excitement for reading, as well as an enthusiasm of learning new stories. They both have a vivid and excitable imagination which enhances their own story telling. Keep shining Willow Flame and Evie. I am so proud of you!

IGNITING A LOVE OF READING ACROSS SCHOOL.

This term, our Reading Ambassadors have taken on a leadership role to run their own 'Story Clubs'. Each week they have chosen a book to share with a small group of children across EYFS and KS1, and prepared activities for our children. These activities have included, making story puppets, recreating a front cover, designing their own super hero and much more. It was admirable to watch our Year 6 children in action and I could see their inner teacher blossoming. Our younger children have raced to be involved during lunch times and have really enjoyed the sessions.

PLANS FOR NEXT TERM:

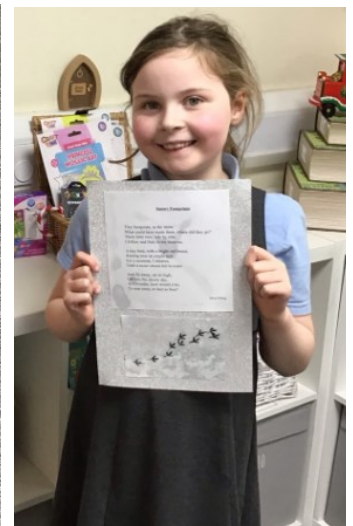

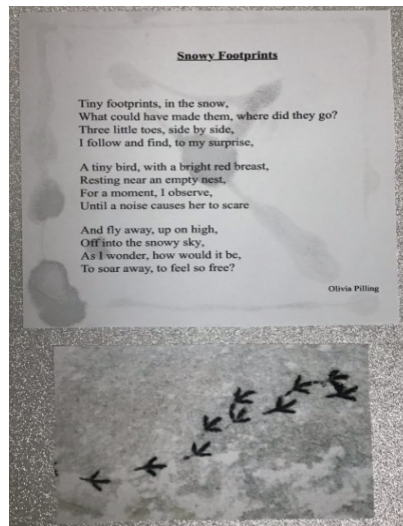

Next term, our Reading Ambassadors will be continuing their leadership role in managing the Key Stage 2 library. They will be dedicating a weekly lunchtime to allow KS2 children to change their library books more accessibly. Thank you!

OUR VERY OWN POET—OLIVIA PILLING

It is always a delight to hear Olivia reading and to hear of her talking so passionately about her favourite books. Her love of reading has been transferred into producing a magnificent poem—Snowy Footprints. Well done, Olivia, you should be so proud of yourself, I certainly am!

Tiny footprints in the snow,
What could have made them, where did they go?
Three little toes side by side,
I follow and find to my surprise,
A tiny bird, with a bright red breast,
Resting near an empty nest,
For a moment, I observe,
Until a noise causes her to scare.
And fly away, up on high,
Off into the snowy sky.
As I wonder, how would it be,
To soar away, to feel so free?

FESTIVE RECOMMENDED READS:

Can you spare a few hours a week to become a reading helper at our school?

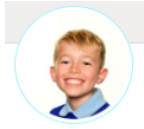

We are working with Coram Beanstalk, a charity that recruits and trains volunteer reading helpers who can commit to an afternoon a week to come in to school. As a reading helper you will support at least 3 children on a one-to-one basis outside of the classroom environment. You will be sharing and talking about books, helping them to grow in confidence and develop a lifelong love of reading. For more information or if you wish to apply, visit the website at www.corambeanstalk.org.uk/register-now or call 0207 729 4087.

BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

READING AMBASSADOR VOICE

BOBBY'S RECOMMENDED READ: Book: Max Author: Bob Graham

This is a book about a superbaby. It is fun, it has lots of great pictures which helps to explain what is happening in the story. Max's mum and dad and superheroes. They want Max to be a superhero too but Max needs to learn how to fly—and it's not easy! The story has both sad and happy parts with a fun ending. I think children in Reception up to Year 3 would love it. I give it 10/10.

COMPETITION TIME:

Home Bargains are running a Christmas Art Competition in Aid of Alder Hey Children's hospital. The competition is for the children to design their own Christmas Card on a square piece of paper (please see the image to the right for more details and last year's winners!) The winning entries will be sold as Christmas cards in Home Bargains stores across the UK, with all proceeds going to Alder Hey. School can also win a craft hamper and £100 voucher for resources too!

Good luck!
